

The rules on who can hand in postal votes in England have changed

You can only hand in up to five postal votes, plus your own, to your council offices or polling station

Political parties and campaigners can only hand in postal votes for their family members, or people they provide care for

You can also still return your postal vote by post via Royal Mail

Find out more at www.charnwood.gov.uk/voting\_by\_post

Or Scan Below

The Electoral Commission

YOUR VOTE MATTERS

DON'T LOSE IT

